The Westgate School has a strong academic tradition where pupils excel because of the exceptional partnership for learning that exists between pupils and adults in our school community. The Westgate is Hampshire's first, all-through school and we are excited to be embedding PE provision all-through.

There is a strong ethos of mutual support in our school and colleagues benefit from generous non-contact time as well as a whole school commitment to supporting professional learning in a culture of "high expectations without fear".

- To contribute to the development of initiatives and pedagogies which will continue to improve the teaching and learning in PE;
- To support colleagues in a culture of learning from each other and sharing good practice;
